KYC Responsibilities for Your Training

KYC is responsible to comply with all aspects of compliance for your training and assessment.

KYC is responsible for issuing your AQF statements of attainment or certifications.

In the unlikely event that KYC can no longer deliver part or all of your training / course, KYC will endeavour to assist you into a similar course and provide statements of attainment for any study completed and refund of any fees for units that have not been completed.

Please talk to a KYC staff member about any questions you may have about your learning and read the Student Information Booklet and Course Brochure so that you can make an informed decision about what is right for you.

If KYC is not the right training provider for you, staff will assist you to research and access the most appropriate provider to meet your needs.
